

Beginning to Understand Line in the Abstract

What are the lines in this room?

What is the line of the face of the person next to you?

What is the line of the person standing / sitting next to you?

What is the line of a person walking through a space?

What is the line of that person walking exhibiting comedy?

What is the line of that person walking exhibiting tragedy?

What is that line of sound?

What is the line of a person speaking a line of text (exhibit)?

What is the line of (play specific song, slow tempo)?

What is the line of (play other song, fast tempo)?

What is the line of your childhood?

What is the line of the place of your birth?

What is the line of your parents?

What is the line of your life up until this point?

What is the line of your body right now?

What is the line of what's inside you right now?

What is the line of love?

What is the line of war?

What is the line of death?

What is the line of (look at words in a foreign language)?